

Tasmanian Leaders Program IMPACT STUDY

“A fantastic program which is like no other. It is the whole package and combines self development, professional growth, community and also builds strong and lasting connections.”

The valuable contribution of The Tasmanian Leaders Program (TLP) to Tasmania cannot be underestimated. Outcomes of this Study demonstrate the significant impact of the program to the socio-economic vitality of the State by providing the platform to build strong networks - across sector, size of organisation, industry and region. Participation in TLP has a positive and lasting influence on graduates' personal and professional growth, evident long after completion. The Study reveals a strong underlying theme of interconnectivity amongst an engaged, confident and motivated Alumni group, creating a ripple effect flowing through the Tasmanian community and beyond.
